21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so, I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it." (Mt 16:17-18)

Welcome Ministry

We welcome newcomers and visitors in the Lord's name to our Parish. Can you help? We are looking for greeters at Sunday Mass who can also assist with simple Parish contacts; others willing to organize occasional "get togethers" for the newly arrived; and still others to prepare written and other media to convey our greetings and assist newcomers to find their place in our Parish community. Please call the Rectory to tell us of your interest (781-631-0086). Hoping to hear.

Our Ministries — August 29/30th

Our Parish community exercises our mission to live the Gospel in the daily lives of its members. This reality is supported by the special ministries our Parish develops and supports through Prayer and Worship, Life Accompaniments of various sorts and by Community Outreach efforts. Our Annual Ministries Weekend will be August 29th and 30th. We present and recruit for volunteer positions for all our existing and new ministries. Representatives from each initiative will be available following all masses to explain the mission and goals of the work and to assist those interested to sign up.

National Make-A-Will Month!

August is a perfect time to plan ahead and to protect your family. A will reflects your values-providing comfort, protecting your loved ones, and strengthening your faith-based stewardship for generations to come. Consult with an attorney.

Project Rachel is a confidential ministry that offers hope and healing for women (and men) in pain from past abortions. Information at the doors of the Church.

Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish

Marblehead, Massachusetts

August 23, 2026
Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioner of Our Lady Star of the Sea,

Words of promise and fulfillment, pronounced in high solemn fashion by our Lord, form the foundation for our prayer together this weekend about identity and mission. "You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church" (see Matthew 16:13-20). The Lord makes it clear. Peter obtains a new identity as the heavenly Father's gift of grace, working within him, reveals Jesus for who he really is. It is in the profession of Jesus as "the Christ, the Son of the living God," that we discover both who Jesus really is and, consequent to that, who we really are as well. Peter is sent to build foundations for a community in whose name he has just spoken. Just as Peter received a new name and a new mission, you and I, too, find our true identity as those called to new life in Christ for the sake of the world.

God's grace builds community in and through us. We are charged with bringing the proclamation of the Gospel to the whole world. This is not something that comes to us through "flesh and blood." It is the work of God's own love, God's own grace within us. We are brought together as a "Church," a communion of life and love together with Jesus and with each other. God builds us together into a new reality. We are not a political or social assembly, but are a living, speaking, acting body, that of Christ, present in the world today. That identity is lived in a communion of mind and heart that the world cannot give, but that is God's own gift to us. We, then, God's Church, are a living word of promise and fulfillment for the world. We help the world understand and acknowledge our true dignity as human beings, loved into life by God. We challenge others to live that high destiny to the full.

As our Summer breaks come to a conclusion with the reopening of the school year nigh upon us, we receive from Jesus the charge to be a word of promise and fulfillment for the renewal of this world. We, as a community, are called to build on the foundations of grace. One of my great concerns is the high number of students in our parish who do not pursue religious education. My prayer is that you might be ready and generous enough to help, to reach out with encouragement and support to these students' families. The Lord's work of building up his Church truly brings new life and hope to others. The dangers and misdirection of the world around us are great in these days. The pretense and narrowness of the materialistic approach to life and value can harm one's identity and sense of mission in life. All the more important is it, then, to give our younger generation firmer foundations, a firmer rock, on which to build a fuller life. We need your help to do so! No one is too young, no one too old, no one too unsure, no one too busy, no one too afraid, to be a help to the Lord, and to us, in this important work. Give a call if you dare!

All staff and volunteers at Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish are required to be certified in the VIRTUS program of child safety. By having a common understanding of procedures and by being alert to any signs of danger or concern, we seek to provide the very best of safe environments for our youngsters in every aspect of Parish life. Any parish volunteers who have not yet done this training are asked to contact the leader of their ministry or to call the rectory. Those who have already done VIRTUS need not repeat the program, but are reminded of their obligation to register online and to receive updates on this topic from time to time.

Class assignments are underway for Religious Education this coming Fall. If any family has not registered for Fall classes, please do so at your earliest convenience.

Asking God's blessing on you and yours, I am,

Yours in the Lord's service,

Msgr. Timothy J. Moran

Youth Ministry

We invite all members of the SOS Youth Group and anyone interested in serving to sign up for our upcoming Ministry Weekend. We encourage everyone to prayerfully consider how you can share your gifts and talents in the service of our parish and young people.

Camp Fatima – August 20-A Wonderful Day!!

A group of our young people spent Thursday, August 20th assisting developmentally disabled children at the camp run by the Diocese of Manchester. Beyond actively engaging with the other young people our group played a key leadership role in celebrating the Mass.

Next Youth Ministry Meeting – August 23

We warmly invite everyone in the parish to join us for our next meeting, tonight, August 23. During this special gathering, we will come together in prayer and thanksgiving as we celebrate one of our own who has faithfully served our youth group and parish in many ways and is preparing to leave for college.

Let us come together as a parish family to thank him for his service, pray for him, encourage him, and send him forth with our love and blessings.

Thank you for being a community that serves, supports, and celebrates one another!

Blessings,

Fr. Stephen A Okoli, SMMM

As a follow up to our Plastic Free July initiative, Beyond Plastics, http://plastics.org, is offering a free webinar on The Social Cost of Plastic.

The Webinar will focus on a report from Duke University that exposes the "staggering reality of the true economic, environmental and human health costs of plastic pollution, estimated to be between $436 billion to $1.1 trillion annually."

Beyond Plastics goes on to say that "The unsustainable toll impacts everything from our healthcare systems to our marine ecosystems. It is time to uncover the true cost of the plastic lifecycle, and what we can do to shift toward a sustainable future."

The webinar is on Tuesday, September 15 at 7pm. Find more information about the webinar: The Social Cost of Plastic: Beyond Plastics Free Webinar with Duke University and Natural Resources Defense Council — Beyond Plastics - Working To End Single-Use Plastic Pollutionbit.ly

We hope you will join members of the CCT at this event.

Did you know…? Born in Maryland in 1735, John Carroll belonged to one of the few Catholic families that had managed to flourish despite legal restrictions.

Unable to receive a Catholic education in the colonies, he studied in Europe with the Jesuits before returning home as a priest. In 1776, the Continental Congress asked Carroll to accompany Benjamin Franklin, Charles Carroll (his cousin) and Samuel Chase on a diplomatic mission to Canada. His presence was deliberate. Congress recognized that a Catholic priest could help build trust among French-Canadian Catholics and demonstrate that the American Revolution was not a Protestant movement hostile to the Catholic faith.

Encouraging Registration

Registration is open for our parish's religious education program, which begins on September 13. The program covers grades 1 through 8 and is important to enable our children to grow in understanding of the faith into which they were baptized. Unfortunately, there are parents who only register their children for grades 2, which prepares them for the Sacraments of Reconciliation and First Communion, and 7 and 8, which prepare them for Confirmation. Certainly, that is better than nothing as those sacraments are very important in their lives, but the other grades are also very important for the children to come to a fuller understanding of the faith, not just as the teachings of the Church but as a way of life to be lived by followers of Jesus.

Parents are responsible for the education of their children. For Catholics this includes education in living as a Christian, and the Church helps parents fulfill their responsibility with our Religious Education program. So if you are a parent of a child or children in grades 1-8, I strongly encourage you to register your child(ren) promptly. If you don't have children of those ages but know parents who do, you can help them by reminding the that it is time to register their chlid(ren) for religious ed.

There are new books for many of the sacraments. If you were familiar with baptisms or weddings years ago, you may have noticed that in recent years the wording has changed in some places. The purpose was to make the meaning of each sacrament clearer both to those receiving the sacrament and to those attending. Of course, when babies are baptized, they don't understand , but their parents and older siblings do, as do children who are baptized later than infancy. It is easy to be nostalgic for the old ways, but prayerful attention to the current rites can help us appreciate the sacraments administered to us or in our presence https://www.thebostonpilot.com/Opinion/article.asp?ID=203120.

This week we begin on Monday with the Feast of St. Bartholomew the Apostle. He is likely the same as the one named Nathanael in the Gospel of John. Tradition says that he preached in India and in Armenia, where he was martyred https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Bartholomew_the_Apostle.

August 27 is the Memorial of St. Monica, the mother of St. Augustine. She was probably a Berber, born in present day Algeria in 332. Married to a pagan who didn't allow her to have her children baptized, she had two sons and a daughter. Augustine became a Manichean heretic as a teenager. For seventeen years she prayed for his conversion, and followed him from North Africa to Rome and Milan. In Milan, Augustine converted and was baptized by St. Ambrose. As they were traveling back to Africa, Monica fell ill and died in Ostia, near Rome. Her persistence in prayer for her son is an example for all who pray for the conversion of someone https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Saint_Monica.

The Memorial of St. Augustine, Bishop and Doctor of the Church, follows on August 28. He was born in 354, became an excellent philosopher, orator, and teacher, perhaps the greatest theologian of antiquity. After his conversion, he put his skills to work in service to the gospel as a priest and then bishop of Hippo. His brilliant thought is available today in many sermons and books, notably Confessions, The City of God, and The Trinity. He died on August 28, 430 https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Augustine_of_Hippo.

We celebrate the Memorial of the Passion of St. John the Baptist on August 29. The story of John's martyrdom is familiar: he told Herod Antipas that his marriage to Herodias was unlawful. When her daughter danced for him and his guests, Herod promised her whatever she asked for and at Herodias' prompting she asked for the head of John, and he reluctantly had him beheaded. John's death foreshadowed that of Jesus and gives us an example of being prepared to die in witness to the truth https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Beheading_of_John_the_Baptist.

Have a good week.
Enjoy the summer while it lasts.
