Welcome Ministry

Welcome to Our Church

We welcome newcomers and visitors in the Lord's name to our Parish. Can you help? We are looking for greeters at Sunday Mass who can also assist with simple Parish contacts; others willing to organize occasional "get togethers" for the newly arrived; and still others to prepare written and other media to convey our greetings and assist newcomers to find their place in our Parish community. Please call the Rectory to tell us of your interest (781-631-0086). Hoping to hear.

We Share Electronic Giving for Parish support. See our Parish Website at www.sosmarblehead.org.

Appeal for Xaverian Missionary Fathers

We welcomed Fr. Joeven Matugas from the Saint Francis Xavier Foreign Mission Society (SX), last month as part of our annual Mission Cooperative Appeal. The Xaverian Missionary Fathers were founded in 1898 in Parma, Italy, by Guido Maria Conforti who envisioned a congregation committed to spreading the Christian faith abroad, emphasizing faith, obedience, and brotherly love as the core spiritual gifts. Their charism focuses on the vision of making the world a single family through evangelization and education as a way of fostering unity among peoples. We are continuing to accept donations for this mission society until Sunday, August 9th. Please help in supporting their work.

Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish

Marblehead, Massachusetts

August 9, 2026
Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioner of Our Lady Star of the Sea,

"Take courage, it is I." These words of reassurance taken from today's Gospel (see Matthew 14:22-33) were first spoken to frightened disciples who were losing their fight against contrary winds and waves miles from shore. The Lord had earlier "made" or commanded the disciples to leave, while he dismissed the crowds who had just been miraculously fed. Jesus had first come to that district to be alone in prayer as he contemplated the death of his cousin John and its implications for his ministry and his own impending passion. He sent everyone away and spent hours in prayer seeking the strength to realize his mission in the face of opposition and now, the murderous assault against his forerunner, John.

Shortly before dawn he is seen by the disciples, in the midst of their nautical struggles against wind and wave. Jesus walks confidently on the sea. Indeed, the Lord had set his course to face down the enemies of sin and death. He aimed to accept on his own innocent shoulders the burden of all sin of all time in order to fulfill his Father's will that he should not condemn but save. He was resolved to accept the full reality of our human mortality true to love even in the face of an excruciatingly painful death. And he was to walk victoriously over both. The full fury of human life at its worst was to be trodden beneath his feet.

And having resolved to face humanity's enemies, he also resolved to call his followers to do the same. So Peter is invited to leave the boat and to walk the waves. Focused on Jesus, he is able. Distracted by the fright of the realities storming around, he sinks. Only the Lord's outstretched hand is able to draw him up and safely back to the boat. For you and me, we too are asked to face the realities, oft frightful, of a stormy, fitful and frequently unfair experience of life in this fallen world. We face each day the implications of our inevitable death and the inability to resolve the purpose of life within the limited confines of natural existence. We witness with heartfelt concern the continued recourse to violence in the world around us and the dead-end strategies of expecting force and oppression to lead to peace and happiness. The Lord stands near, in person, and says to us, as he did to Peter: "Come!"

Jesus invites us to find our footing, walking his ways securely on the virtue of love (charity) and on the truth of his word. Charity and truth are the means by which the disciple walks the waves of tossing, passing times and by which we make way against the resisting headwinds of our days. Neither one is sufficient. Both, focused on the Lord's person, "It is I," offer the secure means by which we rise above the fray and are able, in the Lord, to offer assuring hands to any brother or sister who calls out in fear. Are you ready? Are you willing to walk the waves, pointing reliably to our true destiny in God? The world awaits your yes.

Your commitment to the person of Jesus. Your cultivation of the virtues of charity, summing up all Gospel living, must be made available and witnessed before the world. Your perception and pursuit of the truth of who God is, who we are and what our ultimate purpose in life may be is the leverage, in love, to rise above the storms of the moment and to reach out and draw up your brothers and sisters as well. We do not wish to go down into the drink. Nor do we wish to leave our loved ones to drown either. We do not want to add to the thrashing nor put anyone else down in our panic. No. In the Lord, by the grace of the virtue of love and the sincere pursuit of truth, we offer a steady, uplifting hand to all, having found sustenance and a sure footing ourselves in Christ.

Asking God's blessing on you and yours, I am

Yours in the Lord's service,

Msgr. Timothy J. Moran

Youth Ministry

A sincere thank you to everyone who attended our monthly SOS Youth Group meeting last Sunday! We decided to attend Camp Fatima on Thursday the 20th of August, with transportation details to be announced. We will be recruiting new members through Mass announcements, CCD visits, and a welcome meeting. A leadership structure will be set up with a President, Secretary, and Treasurer, with active members eligible to run.

Our meeting was a moment of reflection on this year's successful events and agreed that better timing will make future activities even stronger. Finally, we shared ideas for fall activities, including pumpkin carving and other Halloween outreach, and briefly discussed the possibility of attending World Youth Day in Korea. Thank you for your continued enthusiasm and commitment to our youth ministry! Our next meeting is tonight, August 9 (5:00-7:00 PM).

Blessings,
Fr. Stephen Okoli
Youth Director, SOS Youth Group

The Webinar will focus on a report from Duke University that exposes the "staggering reality of the true economic, environmental and human health costs of plastic pollution, estimated to be between $436 billion to $1.1 trillion annually."

Beyond Plastics goes on to say that "The unsustainable toll impacts everything from our healthcare systems to our marine ecosystems. It is time to uncover the true cost of the plastic lifecycle, and what we can do to shift toward a sustainable future."

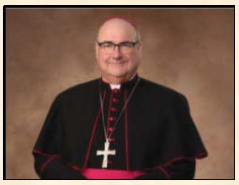
The webinar is on Tuesday, September 15 at 7pm. Find more information about the webinar: The Social Cost of Plastic: Beyond Plastics Free Webinar with Duke University and Natural Resources Defense Council — Beyond Plastics - Working To End Single-Use Plastic Pollutionbit.ly

We hope you will join members of the CCT at this event.

Did you know…?

The crown of thorns symbolizes Christ's suffering during the passion (Matthew 27:29). Soldiers mocked Jesus with it, yet it became a sign of His kingship. In Catholic art, it often surrounds the Sacred Heart. It reminds believers of the price of redemption. The symbol contrasts human cruelty with divine victory. Churches may display it in Stations of the Cross. It calls Catholics to accept suffering with faith. The crown's thorns also point to glory beyond pain. This symbol bridges humiliation and triumph.

Dear Friends,
Congratulations to you, parishioners of Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish, on surpassing your 2026 Catholic Appeal goal. I am continually moved by the faith, generosity, and the goodness of the people here in the Archdiocese of Boston.
This year's theme, "Together We Are One", has been a reminder of our communion in the Lord Jesus and our call to be united to the Body of Christ.



Thank you for partnering with me as co-workers in the Lord's vineyard as we support and sustain His work and His ministry.

Yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Richard G. Henning

Comments from Deacon Joe

Assumption

On November 1, 1950, Pope Pius XII issued the Apostolic Constitution Munificentissimus Deus, in which he declared, "We pronounce, declare, and define it to be a divinely revealed dogma: that the Immaculate Mother of God, the ever Virgin Mary, having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul into heavenly glory." He did this after consulting all the bishops and receiving almost unanimous approval for declaring this dogma, and he expressed the hope that the faith in the Assumption of Mary would strengthen our faith in our own resurrection at the end of time. The belief has roots in the early centuries of the Church and it is celebrated in the churches of the East under the title Dormition of the Mother of God. It is one of four dogmas about Mary which have been officially defined. The others are that she is Mother of God, that she was conceived without original sin (Immaculate Conception), and that she remained a virgin throughout her life (Perpetual Virginity) https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Assumption_of_Mary. We celebrate the Assumption as a solemnity on August 15. Normally it is a holy day of obligation, but the bishops of the United States have decreed that when it is the day before or after a Sunday it does not carry the obligation of attending Mass. The fact that one of the large windows in our church, built in the 1930's depicts the Assumption, shows that the belief was present before the dogma was defined.

With the column in the July 31 Pilot we "complete our pilgrimage through the Mass" although Fr. O'Grady promises columns later about topics such as music, liturgical books, and the Liturgy of the Hours. As for the ending of Mass, although music is not required to accompany the departure of the clergy and ministers, the bishops do not discourage it. When it comes to prayers after Mass such as the prayer to St. Michael, there is no place for the priest to lead them before leaving the church. Finally we should note that the dismissal at the end of Mass often expresses our ongoing obligation to carry the Mass with us to the world outside the building: "Go and announce the gospel of the Lord," or "Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life." We do not live as if our faith has nothing to do with our everyday life https://www.thebostonpilot.com/Opinion/article.asp?ID=203034.

This week before we reach the Solemnity of the Assumption, we have three required celebrations.

On August 10 we celebrate the Feast of St. Lawrence, Deacon and Martyr. Lawrence met the future Pope Sixtus II in Spain and went with him to Rome. As Pope, Sixtus made Lawrence archdeacon, responsible for the material goods of the Church and for distributing alms to the poor. When Sixtus and the deacons were arrested on August 6, 258, and sentenced to death, Lawrence was ordered to hand over the treasures of the Church. He sold all he could and gave the proceeds to the poor. On August 10 he returned to court with a group of poor people and told the prefect of Rome, "Here are the treasures of the Church." The prefect ordered him to be executed https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Saint_Lawrence.

The Memorial of St. Clare, Virgin, who founded the Second Order of St. Francis (the Poor Clares) is on August 11. She was a friend of St. Francis who was so inspired by his example that she founded an order of nuns to follow his embrace of poverty as a way of life. She lived from 1184 to 1253 and was canonized in 1255. There is a statue of St. Clare on the reredos behind the altar in our church https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Clare_of_Assisi.

Then on August 14 we have the Memorial of St. Maximilian Kolbe, O.F.M. Conv., priest and martyr. He was imprisoned at Auschwitz in 1941. When a prisoner escaped ten inmates were sentenced to die. One of them, Franciszek Gajowniczek, exclaimed, "My wife! My children!" Father Kolbe asked to take his place and died on August 14. He was beatified in 1971 and canonized in 1982. Mr. Gajowniczek had survived captivity and was present at both events https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Maximilian_Kolbe.

Have a good week.
Enjoy the summer
