A man named John
was sent from God.
He came for testimony,
to testify to the light,
so that all might
believe through him.
He was not the light,
but came to testify
to the light.

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA PARISH

We see our community as one moved by Faith, led by Hope and united in Charity, seeking, as a caring family, to walk in the footsteps of Jesus Christ by reaching out in welcome to all: the young, the old, the stranger, and the neighbor. We commit ourselves to helping and healing, to feeding the hungry, to visiting the sick, and to consoling the bereaved as Jesus commanded in the gospels.

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA PARISH

Marblehead, Massachusetts

December 17, 2023
Third Sunday of Advent
Gaudete Sunday

Dear Parishioner of Our Lady Star of the Sea,

“Gaudete!” The whole of today’s liturgy calls out: rejoice! The whole of our lives should call out: rejoice! In the words of St. Paul (see 1 Thessalonians 5:16-24): “Rejoice always!” While much of our society readily joins in a sense of celebration in these days leading to Christmas, the sense of spiritual joy is often not prominent. There are many merry, fun aspects to the season, but the main point, the spiritual rebirth and renewal of humanity in the birth of our Lord is often less perceived. Yet, it falls to you and to me to be the heralds of this deeper joy, this new relationship with God effected in the Incarnation of his Son and made manifest by his birth among us.

The First Reading (see Is 61:1-2a, 10-11) says through the Prophet Isaiah: “I rejoice heartily in the Lord, in my God is the joy of my soul.” So, too, is the song of Mary in the same key (see Responsorial Psalm from Luke 1:46-54): “My spirit rejoices in God my Savior.” And the cause of their rejoicing and ours is the same. As St. John the Baptist put it to his questioners (see John 1:6-8, 19-28) “I am the voice of one crying out.... There is one among you whom you do not recognize, the one who is coming after me.” As the Prophets and St. John the Baptist prepared the world for the coming of Jesus in the flesh and in his public life, so too, you and I are called to prepare the way for the one who is coming after us, the Lord Jesus. We, however, are preparing for his coming in Glory. We are to make this world ready to meet the Lord of Glory at his second coming. And the best way to prepare the Lord’s way is, exactly, the theme of our prayer this week: rejoice. Allow the joy of the Lord’s saving love to re-echo in our minds and hearts, in our lives. Fill the world around you with cries of joy, rather than distress, with deeds of joy that reach out and sustain the weak, with the strength of joy that gives courage and new hope to those who were lost. "Prepare the Way of the Lord!" "Testify to the Light!"

One of the best ways to prepare for Christmas is through making a good confession. Here at Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish, confessions are heard each Saturday at 2:30 p.m. Additionally, many make an appointment at the Rectory to have their confession heard. On the Wednesdays of Advent beginning at 6:00 p.m., we have additional Penance opportunities in the Church. The Lord was born among us to bring God's forgiveness and peace. We both receive forgiveness and commit to share these gifts in the sacrament of Penance. Please keep this spiritual preparation very much in mind so that all of the busyness of the season does not become an end unto itself. Freeing our minds and heart from sin is the best way to “rejoice” in preparation for the Lord’s coming.

The thanks of the Parish go to each and every one who has taken part in the Christmas Giving Tree program this year. We “rejoice” in Christmas cheer when we go out of our way to include those more needy in our planning and in our hearts. Thank you for that wonderful witness to the “glory” of Christ’s love of which the angels will sing this Christmas.

Yours in the Lord’s service,

Msgr. Timothy J. Moran

CHRISTMAS TREE GIVING

Thanks to all who have participated!

Each Advent Season, our parish donates a goodly number Christmas gifts to needy children living on the North Shore. This wonderful program is coordinated with Catholic Charities North, and your gifts will be shared with neighbors that will otherwise go without. It was clear donors were happy with the possibility of giving toys this year! The Parish is grateful to Marylyn Kusek and all who worked with her to organize and carry out this year's program.

Efforts to reduce waste at the Christmas Fair Food Court were very successful with only ONE actual trash bag of landfill waste generated despite hundreds of visitors! Additionally, no single-use plastic water bottles were sold; instead, we offered water from an Igloo with compostable cups. Thanks to "Recycling Elves" Christine Cudihy and Joan Thayer, waste was kept to a bare minimum with five bags of compost and the rest being 75 recyclable soda cans, other mixed recycling and some cardboard. Thanks to Linda Vizey for taking the bags of compostable materials to the transfer station and to team members Dylan Vizey, Mary McCormick-Gendzel and Pat Chiappa for talking to community members about the Creation Care Team, composting and waste reduction. We would like to thank Msgr. Moran, Peter Fallon, Linda Newall and parishioners for their support and participation in making this such an eco-friendly event aligning with Pope Francis' goals to care for our earth.

Comments from Deacon Joe

Advent: Third Week

The O Antiphons Every day at Evening Prayer (also called Vespers) the Church chants or recites Mary's song of Praise, the Magnificat (Luke 1:46-55). This is immediately preceded and followed by an "antiphon" which sets the tone for the Magnificat.

Each evening from December 17 through 23 the antiphon invokes Jesus by a title and description followed by a prayer that he come and bless us in some way related to the invocation. For example, the first one says, "O Wisdom of our God Most High, guiding creation with power and love: come to teach us the path of knowledge!" For all seven antiphons, see here: <https://www.usccb.org/prayers/o-antiphons-advent>.

For a bit more history and an analysis of each antiphon, see the following: <https://www.catholiceducation.org/en/culture/catholic-contributions/what-are-the.html>.

Here's a video of one of them: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gjgloBs68mw>.

The antiphons are now used also as the verse before the gospel at Mass during the week. They also gave rise to the hymn "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel."

Cruise and Retreat You may have noticed that I was away from November 17-26 and again from December 4-8. The first was for a cruise down the Rhine, visiting several cities I wanted to see — Cologne, Strasbourg, Speyer, and Koblenz — and several others that were interesting. The second was for a retreat at St. Anselm Abbey, which went well. It was good to do those things, and it's good to be home.

Winter officially arrives on December 21 at 10:27 p.m., astronomically speaking, although we've already had days that were cold enough to be normal for winter. It seems that our ecosystem is adapted to the changes of seasons, so we need the winter to keep things as they are during the warmer seasons — tree species adapted to the climate, insects limited, etc. So I probably wouldn't really want a climate without frost and snow, but I really dislike being cold, so these months are always a challenge for me.

Looking on the bright side, the earliest sunsets of the year were on December 8-10, at 4:11. Days are already beginning to end a little later. Amazingly, though, the latest sunrises, at 7:13, go from December 28 through January 10. No, I didn't figure this out for myself; I got it from the almanac, and I don't know the reason for the discrepancy of 3 days at one end and 14 at the other. Maybe an astronomer could explain it. It's remotely possible I'd understand the explanation. With later sunsets and earlier sunrises, the shortest days, 9 hours and five minutes run from December 17 through 26.

This week there are no feasts, and the weekdays outrank all memorials. We are looking forward to Christmas.

Have a good week and a good Advent.

Try to keep warm.

Although it's been said many times, many ways, Season's Greetings to you.

~Deacon Joe Whipple
