OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA PARISH

Marblehead, Massachusetts

December 31, 2023
Feast of the Holy Family

Dear Parishioner of Our Lady Star of the Sea,

I pray that you and your family and loved ones have been celebrating a happy and holy commemoration of the Lord's Birth. What a joy it is to acknowledge the wonders of God's grace brought to birth in our lives. Your participation for the Fourth Sunday of Advent and for Christmas Eve and Day was a time that saw our Parish Family gathered in good number, with the presence of so many who have been away for school, work or new locations. It is a joy whenever we are back together again! Our celebration of the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph remind us how close the Lord is to us and how closely we should attend to the opportunities to live and share his love each day.

I speak of that closeness of family and parish as one who missed out on both in this past week. On December 22nd, the Friday before Christmas, I decided to do a routine Covid test because I may have had exposure to Covid in three situations that week and, I had realized, my voice was heavier than usual at morning mass. The result was "+." I took notice and repeated the test some hours later with a fresh kit from another producer: same result. Although I did not feel at all sick, I could not but take myself out of all interactions with others in deference to their safety. So, feeling fine physically, I spent Christmas on my own. The principal difficulty: not being part of our prayerful celebrations. I am deeply grateful to Father Stephen Okoli, who has become a part of our Parish Family, for changing his many commitments to carry the main responsibilities for our prayer. I am grateful also for Father Miciej from St. Joseph Parish, Lynn, who together with Fr. Pablo Gomez, rearranged their schedule to help us out. I do hope, however, that each of you were both able and enabled to be strengthened and renewed by your participation in Christmas prayer and celebration!

"For my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in sight of all the peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel" (see Luke 2:22-40). These words of today's Gospel refer, firstly, to Jesus as he was presented in the temple by Mary and Joseph. It refers, then, too, to the three of them together, a family fulfilling the life and love of the Heavenly Father. The Holy Family is a living image of salvation, prepared in the sign of all the peoples; it is a light of revelation, the glory of God's people, Israel. How is it with family life among us? In our Church? The question we must ask is whether the strength, balance and goodness of our families shine as a beacon of hope to the world. Is the state and quality of "Family Life" among us our glory? Is it a light for the world? May we reflect, in ourselves and in our relationships, the life-giving, forgiving love of God, our Father for all.

This Monday, January 1st, is also the World Day of Prayer for Peace. As we conclude the closing year, 2023, we are keenly aware of the challenges that stand before the world and our societies. We know the need for a deeper awareness of what is right, good and just and a better ability to communicate about these important things with brothers and sisters the world over. For, when all is said and done, the quality of our life and who we are as people has to do with the health and balance of our families, not the checking account nor the armaments' stockpile. The question we must ask is whether the strength, balance and goodness of our Catholic families shine as a beacon of hope to our society and to the world. Is the state and quality of "Family Life" among us our glory? Is it a light for the world? Our families can, and should, like the Holy Family, be an image of salvation and a light to guide others. We can do that only to the degree that we reflect, in ourselves and in our relationships, the life-giving, forgiving love of God, our Father. We look to Christ and his Gospel to heal, to strengthen and to give purpose and direction to our families' lives and to our world.

We join as a Parish Family in acknowledging and thanking all those who, at a cost to their own schedules and their own families' plans, help our Parish family prepare and celebrate the liturgical feasts of Christmas Time. Their love of the Lord and his graces to our human family are evident and, I trust, grow in their service to our worship, music and praise of God. Thanks!

Asking God's blessing on you, your family, loved ones and friends, I am

Yours in the Lord's service,

Msgr. Timothy J. Moran

CHRISTMAS TREE GIVING

Thanks to all who have participated!

Each Advent Season, our parish donates a goodly number Christmas gifts to needy children living on the North Shore. This wonderful program is coordinated with Catholic Charities North, and your gifts will be shared with neighbors that will otherwise go without. It was clear donors were happy with the possibility of giving toys this year! The Parish is grateful to Marylyn Kusek and all who worked with her to organize and carry out this year's program.

Christmas Gift from the Fair to the World

Efforts to reduce waste at the Christmas Fair Food Court were very successful with only ONE actual trash bag of landfill waste generated despite hundreds of visitors! Additionally, no single-use plastic water bottles were sold; instead, we offered water from an Igloo with compostable cups. Thanks to "Recycling Elves" Christine Cudihy and Joan Thayer, waste was kept to a bare minimum with five bags of compost and the rest being 75 recyclable soda cans, other mixed recycling and some cardboard.

Thanks to Linda Vizey for taking the bags of compostable materials to the transfer station and to team members Dylan Vizey, Mary McCormick-Gendzel and Pat Chiappa for talking to community members about the Creation Care Team, composting and waste reduction. We would like to thank Msgr. Moran, Peter Fallon, Linda Newall and parishioners for their support and participation in making this such an eco-friendly event aligning with Pope Francis' goals to care for our earth.

Comments from Deacon Joe

Holy Family

The Sunday after Christmas is the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. Artists in Europe began to depict the Holy Family about 500 years ago, and Bishop Laval of New France (Quebec) established the devotion within his diocese in the late 1600's. It was in 1921 that Pope Benedict XV placed it on the General Roman Calendar, and in 1969 it was given its present place. So it is fairly recent as a feast of the worldwide church.

We see the Holy Family as a model of love and harmony for all families to imitate. Even when Jesus stayed in Jerusalem at the age of 12 to the consternation of Mary and Joseph, the situation was readily settled, with Jesus being obedient to them. (Luke 2:41-52) The feast is also an example which encourages marriage and childbearing — particularly timely nowadays when many couples avoid marriage and many married couples are simply unwilling to have children. This is, of course, no criticism of couples who are unable to have children for whatever reason.

Fast away the old year passes. This is the last day of 2023, and we're entering the second week of Christmastide. Let's pray for God's blessings throughout 2024. We may make formal new year's resolutions. Even if we don't, it's a good idea to take stock of our lives during the past year and ask the Holy Spirit to show us what God is calling us to in 2024. Many people like to keep a journal, so they can see how they are doing, how well they are responding to God's promptings.

This week Monday, January 1, is the Solemnity of Mary Mother of God. It is usually a Holyday of Obligation, but when it falls on a Monday, it is not "of obligation." This solemnity celebrates our faith which recognizes Mary as Mother of God. The Council of Ephesus proclaimed this as a dogma in 431. It does not mean that Mary existed before God. It means that Jesus is one person, both God and man, and since Mary is the Mother of Jesus, she is mother of God <https://stpaulcenter.com/why-do-we-call-mary-the-mother-of-god-2/>.

The week also has three obligatory memorials. First, on January 2, we celebrate the Memorial of Saints Basil the Great and Gregory Nazianzen. Born around 425, they became friends while studying in Athens. They wished to be monks, but eventually both became bishops. They were zealous defenders of the true faith in the divinity of Christ against the widespread heresy of Arianism, which brought them into conflict with the emperors, who were Arian at the time. They are among the greatest Doctors of the Church <https://mycatholic.life/saints/saints-of-the-liturgical-year/2-january-saints-basil-the-great-and-gregory-nazianzen-bishops-and-doctors-memorial/>.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton was born in 1774. After her husband's death she converted to Catholicism and devoted herself to the education of girls, especially the poor, and founded the Sisters of Charity. She died in 1821 and was canonized in 1975. She is the first native born American saint. Her Memorial is January 4th https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Elizabeth_Ann_Seton.

On January 5 we celebrate another American saint, this one an immigrant, St. John Neumann, CSSR. He was born in Bohemia in 1811 and came to the United States in 1836 and joined the Redemptorist order. In 1852 he was appointed bishop of Philadelphia, where he worked tirelessly, especially to promote parish life and Catholic education of children. He died in 1860 and was canonized in 1977. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/John_Neumann

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.!
