OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA

We see our community as one moved by Faith, led by Hope and united in Charity, seeking, as a caring family, to walk in the footsteps of Jesus Christ by reaching out in welcome to all: the young, the old, the stranger, and the neighbor. We commit ourselves to helping and healing, to feeding the hungry, to visiting the sick, and to consoling the bereaved as Jesus commanded in the gospels.

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA

Marblehead, Massachusetts

February 12, 2023
Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioner of Our Lady Star of the Sea,

“If you trust in God, you too shall live.” These words from the Book of Sirach open our Liturgy of the Word this weekend. Sirach refers to the “commandments” by which we are saved. They are not mere external rules to be applied to life but are the “words” of God to us, words that are to be trusted. These words speak life, words of Godly wisdom, that lead to beatitude.

In the Gospel (see Matthew 5:17-37) we continue our prayerful reading of the Sermon on the Mount. Jesus shows us that he has come, not to abolish the law or the prophets, but to fulfill them. He fulfills the law and the prophets by doing what they themselves anticipated but were unable to do. Jesus, as God, fulfills God's promise to Abraham that God himself would make good on our unfaithfulness to the Covenant. Jesus, as man, unites our humanity to God's own saving action, surpassing every expectation in a perfect communion that establishes us in God's manifold blessings. We are fulfilled in God's saving love by God's saving action in us. In this way does our righteousness “surpass” all otherwise known measures. It is God's own action in us that we, in Jesus, might enter God's kingdom. The Gospel reading, then, calls us neither to kill nor even to hate, neither to be adulterous, nor even to be lustful. We are not to divorce, neither to make any false oath nor even any oath at all. Yes, we are to love with the love of Christ!

So, “Let your ‘Yes’ mean ‘Yes’ and your ‘No’ mean ‘No.’ You are one in mind and heart with Christ in his surpassing love for others and for our world. That's the “Yes” that should be yours. In such a “yes” to love, you live by what St. Paul calls mature “wisdom.” It is a wisdom not of this age nor of its rulers, but “God's wisdom, mysterious, hidden, which God predetermined before the ages for our glory” (see 1 Corinthians 2:6-10). In asking that your way of life “surpass” in the ways of his love, Jesus is not asking you to intensify your self-application to the particulars of our faith. He is not asking you to become hypercritical in your estimation of what it is God asks of other people in this life. Rather, you are to make your own that great surpassing love by which God sent his Son as your redeemer. Each and every “commandment” or “word” of God calls you to be another Christ, to have the same attitude in you as was in him. Each of the Beatitudes asks you to love those whom God has given you in life with the very love you have received from God. Each of your actions and all of your words, then, are not to be measured by the advantage people might bring to you. No. Rather, each and every word and action is to be judged by how they bring loved ones, strangers and even enemies closer to God. You are to surpass even yourself in this Godly love and, thereby, Godly wisdom.

“Surpass.” As we prepare to celebrate this week St. Valentine's Day, we ask God's blessings of happiness and peace on all of our loved ones and friends. Such a day is not merely one for cards, flowers or boxes of candy. It is a time for each of us to take measure of the loves in our life. Our relationships are not to center on our self and our needs. We are not called to be happy when served and angry when not. We do not accept or reject others in accord with what they bring to us. Rather, we are to love well, in the ways of Jesus' surpassing love. Seek, then, to serve the true good of loved ones and friends, judging everything you do or say as to how much closer such words or deeds will bring them to God. Such will add some true depth and meaning to your ways.

February 11th is the World Day of Prayer for the Sick. We lift up in prayer those who are sick. We ask, too, God's blessing on the many who care for the sick each and every day. Perhaps you can reach out to support, thank and encourage those who have the care of the sick as an everyday responsibility. They give great example of the power of surpassing love. May God bless!

Asking God's blessing on you and yours with a special St. Valentine's Day remembrance, I am

Yours in the Lord's service

Msgr. Timothy J. Moran

SECOND COLLECTION

We appreciate your generosity in defraying this considerable expense.

OUR LADY, STAR OF THE SEA FEBRUARY FOOD DRIVE

Our February Food Drive is in full swing! Every February, our parish supplies the Marblehead Food Pantry. This year, we are providing a list of items requested by the food pantry in the weekly bulletin. A full list of Food Pantry items can also be found on our website www.sosmarblehead.org. Please consider picking up a few extra grocery items on the list while you shop for your own groceries. You can return your non-perishable food donations to the front foyer of the Church during weekends, or to the Parish Center (M-W, 9a-2p) before Monday, February 27. Checks or gift cards are always appreciated, and may be placed in the mail slot at the Rectory, located at the front inner door.

We welcome volunteers to help bring bags across the street to the Parish Center on Sundays after the 11am Mass. If you would like to volunteer, please email Teresa at tbchirlin@yahoo.com.

Thank you in advance for your generosity!

Greener Lent is a fasting program focused on justice for the poor who are most affected by climate degradation. By reducing our meat consumption, we substantially reduce our personal environmental impact. Learn how you can make a difference and sign up now at <https://greenerlent.org>, or for more info, please email Holly Willsey-Walker, our Greener Lent Coordinator at hwillseywalker@gmail.com.

The Pope's Monthly Intentions 2023 February For parishes

We pray that parishes, placing communion at the center, may increasingly become communities of faith, fraternity and welcome towards those most in need.

Comments from Deacon Joe

Carnival

Catholics have more fun. As we get ready for Lent, that may seem a bit counterintuitive, but the whole idea of carnival (from Latin “Good bye to meat”) has to do with getting ready for Lent. People wanted to use up meat and other foods they weren’t supposed to eat during Lent, and if there was a lot on hand, the result could be quite a feast. The party grew in size and duration, morphing into the awful, and unholy, excess we see in New Orleans at Mardi Gras, Brazil at Carnaval, and Germany at Fasching. But we Catholics can rightly enjoy a little pre-Lenten celebration. When we’ve decided what we’ll give up for Lent — maybe chocolate, alcohol, some TV or movies or internet activity, eating between meals — we could have an evening watching that TV show or those movies, eating our favorite snack food, having a drink or two (but don’t get drunk), and maybe a couple of hamburgers in anticipation of meatless Fridays. What we’ll “fast” from isn’t inherently bad, so it’s fine to enjoy it, but not too much. Then we go into Lent ready to fast for forty days, but not too much. We still need to keep healthy, and we shouldn’t make too big a deal of it. If we’ve given up chocolate, we don’t need to go around saying loudly, “Oh, how I’d love a piece of Stowaway Sweets right now!” On the other hand, if someone offers some chocolate or drink or a snack, saying calmly, “No thank you. I’ve given up chocolate (or alcohol, or eating between meals) for Lent,” can be an excellent witness to our faith.

Then there are the positive aspects of Lent, especially almsgiving and prayer. We can use the next week or so to decide how we can pray more (talking to God and especially listening to him) and what extra almsgiving we can do. Again, it’s not a matter of trying to do more than is reasonable in our circumstances, but the effort to get closer to God and do more for our neighbors prepares us to celebrate Easter more meaningfully.

This week Tuesday, February 14, is the Obligatory Memorial of Sts. Cyril and Methodius. They were brothers who evangelized many of the Slavic peoples of central and eastern Europe. They invented the Cyrillic alphabet, based on Greek, to write the languages of the region. Cyril was a monk who died in 869 in Rome and Methodius a bishop who died in 985 in Moravia.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cyril\_and\_Methodius

What happened to St. Valentine’s Day? The historical record is too little, so the Vatican removed the memorial from the liturgical calendar, but the legends live on. So if someone chooses February 14 to tell you, “I love you,” I guess that’s okay.

Happy St. Valentine’s Day! Have a good week.

Monthly Ringing of Church Bells for Climate Awareness

On February 11th at 11:00 a.m., we ring our church bells for 11 minutes, in harmony with several other churches in the Marblehead Ministerial Association to call attention to the need to take 11th hour action to mitigate further climate change. As Catholics, we would like to highlight Pope Francis’ commitment to caring for our common home and the poor and vulnerable affected by climate injustice. The 4th goal of Laudato Si is Adoption of Simple Lifestyles. Possible actions include:

Use resources moderately      Reduce food waste

Adopt a more plant-based diet & reduce meat consumption      Increase use of public transportation

Join Ignatian Solidarity Network mini challenges or Sisters of Mercy Meatless Mondays challenge

What are we doing to meet this goal?

Leading by example, the Creation Care Team will sponsor Soup and Stations on March 3 at 6:30 p.m. (immediately following Stations of the Cross) in the Parish Center. There will be three different meatless soups/stews (recipes available), bread and butter, and water only to drink. Everyone is welcome!
