Marblehead, Massachusetts

January 28, 2024

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

On the sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught. The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes.

~Mark 1:21-22

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA PARISH

We see our community as one moved by Faith, led by Hope and united in Charity, seeking, as a caring family, to walk in the footsteps of Jesus Christ by reaching out in welcome to all: the young, the old, the stranger, and the neighbor. We commit ourselves to helping and healing, to feeding the hungry, to visiting the sick, and to consoling the bereaved as Jesus commanded in the gospels.

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA PARISH

Marblehead, Massachusetts

January 28, 2024
Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioner of Our Lady Star of the Sea,

“Jesus rebuked him and said, “Quiet! Come out of him!” These words from today’s Gospel (see Mark 1:21-28) are the heart of the first encounter with unclean spirits described in Mark’s Gospel. I do not use the word “exorcism” because Mark does not here. Rather than a confrontation of power in which the evil one is cast out, Jesus here is portrayed as a teacher: he rebukes. By his power as teacher, which the Gospel says he exercised each Sabbath in the local synagogue, the man is liberated from what held him in its grasp.

Jesus' word to us has the same end: to liberate us from anything that may hold us in an unhealthy, unhappy way. Our society's word is quite different: it urges to confront, to challenge and to control and often continues on to denigrate and destroy those with whom we disagree. You and I, as bearers of the Gospel to the world today, should display something of the power of Jesus' Word. It must be seen in the truthfulness, beauty, balance and service for good that characterizes holiness of life in God and the pursuit of true peace in relationship with others.

In the context of the Gospel accounts, the “unclean” spirit is not reference so much to a moral failure or any sexual excess. “Unclean” refers to the opposite of “holy.” Holy is the state of communion with God and relationships with one another in God. It is a sense of life, wholeness and balance in all things good. “Unclean,” by contrast, is the opposite. It is that sense of separation, fragmentation in life, inner opposition or contradiction, and a lack of balance and wholesomeness in any measure.

The words of Jesus are what bring us, who are plagued by the distraction and anxiousness of the world, to the wholeness, balance and life of communion with God. So, this is why these accounts of Jesus' victory over the unclean spirits are important to all of us. We look to the Lord's teaching to be that power by which we find the right balance of goods in our soul, and stand in right relationship with God and with neighbor. Jesus, the teacher, is the fulfillment of the promised “prophet” to be “raised up for you from among your kin” of which Moses wrote (see Deuteronomy 18:15-20). Jesus, the teacher, is the one who will free our souls from anxiety both in our dealings with one another and in our relationship with God. In him may we find our balance and our peace!

The ministries of teaching in our Parish are a matter that will demand some special attention of us all in the weeks and months ahead. As with many other things, post-covid life has changed our patterns of behavior. The value and importance of education to freedom is a reality that we would do well to reflect upon. I am concerned that our young get the opportunity to hear the Gospel explained, to feel the balance and joy of Jesus' approach to life and, thereby, to experience a stronger, fuller confidence in facing responsibilities and relationships. In our own day there is not another reliable source for this desired wholesome, integrated intelligent grasp of life.

We will begin this week our study/discussion opportunity: Jesus and the Eucharist. I am happy to see that a good number have already decided to join in the endeavor. To have a core of folk who have had the chance to delve at some depth the relational aspects of our communion in Jesus is going to be a great benefit for the Parish and its life. So many wonderful effects can come when one "hears" from Jesus his word: "This is my body.... for you." So many good contributions of thought and experience will enrich our common life.

Asking God's blessing on you and your loved ones, I am

Yours in the Lord's service,

Msgr. Timothy J. Moran

Jesus and the Eucharist

Study and Discussion Begins this Week

As part of a National Eucharistic Revival, Our Lady Star of the Sea is offering a small group study and discussion opportunity beginning this week and running seven weeks through the Season of Lent to help us understand and more intimately experience the gift of the Eucharist. You will find an information flyer with this week's Bulletin as well as at the Center and on the Rectory back porch. It includes instructions for registration for the event.

SESSION 1

Tuesday, January 30 or
Thursday, February 1

What's Our Story?

The Bible is the story of God's love for us. He created us out of love, redeemed us by his love, and transforms us in his love. Do you know this love?

Welcome!

SESSION 2

Tuesday, February 6 or
Thursday, February 8

Who is Jesus?

Jesus is both God and man; therefore, he reveals who God is in relation to us. Jesus asked Simon Peter, "Who do you say that I am?" (Matthew 16:15) He asks this same question of us: who do you say Jesus is?

Plan Ahead!

Comments from Deacon Joe

Presentation of the Lord

We celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord this week https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Presentation\_of\_Jesus. It is a multi-faceted feast. Coming forty days after Christmas, it is a last liturgical look-back at Christmas. While the Church calendar puts us in Ordinary Time after the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, there are people who would prolong Christmas time to this feast on February 2. The official title of the feast points to the passage in Luke 2:22-40 which tells of Jesus being presented in the Temple and the prophecy of Simeon on that occasion. The Presentation in the Temple is the fourth Joyful Mystery of the Rosary. Since Simeon's prophecy included that a sword of sorrow would pierce Mary's heart, it is also the first of the Seven Sorrows of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The Feast used to be called the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary. There was no specified date for the redemption of a firstborn son (Exodus 13: 2, 12-13). But a woman who gave birth to a son was required to offer sacrifice forty days after the birth (Leviticus 12:2-4, 6-8), and it is that sacrifice which Luke refers to. Since Luke says both happened at the same time, we celebrate the entire event on February 2 as a feast of the Lord <https://www.encyclopedia.com/religion/encyclopedias-almanacs-transcripts-and-maps/purification-mary>.

It became customary in Rome and in Churches of the East to bless candles for use during the year on this day. Since that was a distinctive element of the liturgy of the day, it came to be known in England as Candlemas, and the custom of blessing candles is still called for in the Mass. (Wikipedia notes "The Roman church's custom of blessing candles by the clergy found its way to Germany. The German conclusion that if the sun appeared on Candlemas, a hedgehog would cast a shadow, making a "second winter", was the origin for the modern American festival of Groundhog Day, as many of Pennsylvania's early settlers were German" <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Candlemas>).

Lent will begin soon, on February 14, to be exact. It's not too soon to start thinking about what you will do in extra prayer and almsgiving (or good works generally). The third "prong" of Lent is fasting. Do you want to do more than the minimum of the light "fast" for Ash Wednesday and Good Friday and abstaining from meat on those days and the other Fridays of Lent which are required in church rules? Here's a more detailed explanation of the rules and the writers' further suggestions. <https://hallow.com/blog/lent-fasting-rules/> Fasting in a broad sense can include "giving up" any legitimate enjoyment.

Food Drive Let's be generous in supporting the Marblehead Food Pantry over the next four Sundays.

The big 81. Thank you to everybody who extended good wishes for my birthday. I still don't feel a day over eighty.

This week in addition to the Presentation we celebrate the Memorial of St. John Bosco, a priest of Turin, Italy, who was especially dedicated to educating young people and who founded the Salesians of Don Bosco to carry on this work. He was born in 1815 and died on January 31, 1888. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/John\_Bosco
