The Beatitudes

"Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven."

Matthew 5:11-12

We are one community moved by Faith, led by Hope and united in Charity, seeking, as a caring family, to walk in the footsteps of Jesus Christ by reaching out in welcome to all: the young, the old, the stranger, and the neighbor. We commit ourselves to helping and healing, to feeding the hungry, to visiting the sick, and to consoling the bereaved as Jesus commanded in the gospels.

Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish

Marblehead, Massachusetts

November 1, 2026

Dear Parishioner of Our Lady Star of the Sea, All Saints

We celebrate this weekend the Solemnity of All Saints. We rejoice with the Church in every place remembering the goodness and sense of life of those who were transformed by the Gospel. It is a very ancient celebration with varied origins. There were commemorations firstly of the unnamed martyrs. Then, by extension, the observances came to include confessors of the faith and, eventually, all God's saints. Our November 1st observance likely finds its roots in the early 700's when Pope Gregory III dedicated an Oratory in the Old St. Peter's Basilica to ".. all the just and perfect who are at rest throughout the world."

We celebrate God's victory in the lives of all those saints, named and unnamed, who live in glory with God. One of the things that we hereby honor is the fact that in every state in life and in every age of life there have been brothers and sisters who have completed their life journey as saints. They are among the great multitude mentioned in the first reading (see Revelation 7:2-4,9-14), "who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the Blood of the Lamb." They became saints through the real and ordinary course of life's responsibilities: in prosperity and adversity, in sickness and in health, in honor and in contempt, in riches and in poverty. In all that they have known, too, the failures and successes of their moral standing and have experienced first hand the wonders of true conversion. We, too, hope to show in all aspects of life our reliance on God's Word and our willingness to follow in the ways of Christ through forgiveness of others and through a willing spirit of sacrifice in which we make a gift of life to others. In St. John's words (see 1 John 3:1-3) we are called to "be like him for we shall see him as he is."

The blessedness of which Jesus speaks (see Matthew 5:1-12a) is the joy of mind, soul, body and heart that is experienced as we come alive to a greater love, God; come alive to a greater good, God's. Our greatest strength and realization comes in our response to the initiative of God's love that calls us to think, to know and to love a world of life in his presence. We are most fully human when we respond fully to God's invitation and come to know, love and serve him. It is only in reference to principles based on this grasp of God's reality and of the goodness, truth and beauty of which we are capable in him that we can find our way in dealing with particular facts, figures and circumstances that make up our life journey in this world.

Our nation, as we know, is struggling with issues of life, justice, public honesty and needed safety as we respond to our duties as electors. We are to provide evenhandedly for all and to provide safety and peace to our citizens and to the wider world. Solutions for such challenges come not from serving narrow self or even national "interests" and even less from shallow politicized slogans. It comes through a grasp of the principles of justice, truth, fairness and of generous love of neighbor, carefully thought through, argued in real terms and prioritized for effective action. Earthly blessedness comes from our engaged perception of God and the wisdom of ultimate truths, based on first principles, and effectively realized in the context of an otherwise spiritually impoverished situation. With God's goodness as our guide, you and I have much to offer our world and our neighbors: a happiness and peace the world cannot give.

November 2nd is the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. A special Mass will be held Monday night at 7:00 p.m. for all our beloved who have died. Candles will burn marked by the names of those parishioners who have died in the past twelve months. You are most welcomed to join in this prayer before God for all our loved ones who have gone before us.

Asking God's blessing of consolation and peace, I am

Yours in the Lord's service,

Msgr. Timothy J. Moran

Youth Ministry

Dear SOS Youth Ministry Members,

I hope you are all doing well! I would like to inform you that we will not be participating in face painting for the Business Trick-or-Treat event this year. Instead, we will use this year as a research and planning year to explore how we can improve our participation and make the activity even more successful in the future.

I also wish journeying mercies to all our youth members who traveled last week. I hope you had safe and pleasant journeys and returned home safely. May God continue to protect you wherever you go.

We look forward to seeing everyone at our next SOS Youth Ministry meeting on the second Sunday of November 2026.

Thank you for your understanding and continued commitment to our youth ministry.

God bless you all, and see you soon!

Warm regards,

The Creation Care Corner: Trash

COMPOST, RECYCLE, TRASH?

Americans generate 25% more trash between Thanksgiving and New Year's than at any other time of year. That's an extra one million tons of waste sent to landfills each week.

Join the Creation Care team and Sustainable Marblehead for a co-hosted event on November 4, from 7-8 pm in the Parish Center. Learn what can be composted or recycled—and what belongs in the trash—such as wrapping paper, ribbons and bows, holiday greeting cards, plastic packaging, food waste, turkey bones, and more.

Speakers include Andrew Petty, Health Director for the Town of Marblehead, and Taylor DuBose, Collection of Hard to Recycle Material (CHaRM) Program Manager at Black Earth Compost.

We'll also share clever ways to reduce waste during the holiday season. We look forward to seeing you on the 4th.

In the meantime, we invite you to take this online QUIZ about food waste and its implications. Control click on picture or go to pirg.org/articles/take-our-quiz-how-much-do-you-know-about-food-waste/.

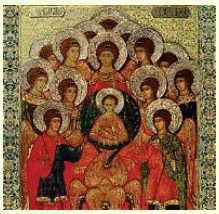
All Hallows



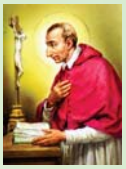
Today is All Saints Day, in older wording Hallowmas. Today we honor all the saints in heaven. This includes not only all the canonized saints and those who were recognized by the Church before there was a formal procedure for canonization but also all those have reached heaven but are not named in official lists. Just as we hope to end up in heaven, we can be confident that there are many more saints from the past than the relatively few who have been officially recognized by the Church. It is this great number who increase our hope for our own salvation. Masses will be at the regular Sunday times https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/All_Saints'_Day.

Tomorrow, November 2, we celebrate All Souls Day, officially called the "Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed." While we can hope that our loved ones who have gone before us are already in heaven, we know that those who were not yet perfect in holiness when they died must become perfect through the cleansing of Purgatory, and we believe that our prayers can help them in this process. We pray for them at every Mass, but more intently on All Souls Day. Our prayers are especially for our own friends and relatives who need them, but also for all the souls in Purgatory. We will have our daily Mass as 9:00 a.m. and a special Mass at 7:00 p.m. for those who have died within the past 12 months https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/All_Souls'_Day.

There is a song for the day by Franz Schubert called Litanei. It isn't "official" but I find it very appropriate. It leads us to think of particular categories of people perhaps beyond our usual categories. You can find the text here https://www.schubertsong.uk/text/am-tage-aller-seelen-litanei-auf-das-fest-aller-seelen/ and a performance I like here https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RHcmm6Rl8yU.

Vatican II also dealt with sacred music, and Pope Leo spoke of it on August 19. Basic to the discussion is that when the people sing it unites them in heart and mind. The music for worship, therefore, must be readily singable and the texts should fit their place in the liturgy. In other words, "music is part of the liturgical action and is not merely a decorative part of the celebration. To sing and play music during the liturgy is to pray, attuning one's heart to that of our sisters and brothers and to God, through active participation in the mystery being celebrated." He goes on to say, "Singing also fosters communion. It contributes to the unity of hearts, overcoming differences between people and bringing everyone together in praise of God through the symphony of voices. Thus, it becomes an epiphany of the Church, a tangible manifestation of the communion that belongs to her very nature." Congregational singing isn't merely optional. It is part of our "job" as participants in the Mass, and refusing to sing when we can is a form of withdrawing from the Mass https://www.vatican.va/content/leo-xiv/en/audiences/2026/documents/20260819-udienza-generale.html.

This week the Memorial of St. Charles Borromeo is celebrated on November 4. The son of a nobleman and a Medici mother, he was born in 1538. When he was 21 his uncle was elected as Pope Pius IV. The new pope called his nephew Charles to Rome and made him a cardinal in 1560, entrusting him with various responsibilities. He organized the final session of the Council of Trent in 1562-63. In 1564 he was appointed Archbishop of Milan, where he vigorously implemented the decrees of the Council of Trent. When the plague hit Milan, the civil authorities fled but he stayed and used his personal fortune to care for and feed tens of thousands of needy Milanese. He died in 1584 and was canonized in 1610. He is patron saint of bishops and catechists among others https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Charles_Borromeo.



November 3 is the optional memorial of St. Martin de Porres, O.P., a Peruvian of mixed race who was very devoted to the poor and the sick https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Martin_de_Porres.

Have a good week.
