OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA PARISH

We see our community as one moved by Faith, led by Hope and united in Charity, seeking, as a caring family, to walk in the footsteps of Jesus Christ by reaching out in welcome to all: the young, the old, the stranger, and the neighbor. We commit ourselves to helping and healing, to feeding the hungry, to visiting the sick, and to consoling the bereaved as Jesus commanded in the gospels.

Star of the Sea Women's Retreat

This year's Women's Retreat will explore Bishop Robert Barron's book: "This Is My Body."

The Church in the U.S. is in the second of a three-year program calling all Catholics to Eucharistic Revival. In 2019 the respected Pew Forum had released a survey that showed 69% of Catholics did not believe in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, thinking communion a mere symbol and the Mass just a collectivity of like-minded individuals gathering to remember his life. In response to this startling data, and the need for Eucharistic Revival, Bishop Barron designed his book to help us understand the sacrament of Jesus' body and blood more thoroughly so that we might fall in love with the Lord more completely.

Our retreat will be on Saturday, October 14th beginning at 9:00 a.m. in the Parish Center. Breakfast and lunch will be included. Materials will be provided. We will complete our day by attending the 4:00 p.m. Mass as a group. You can register for the program by calling or visiting the Rectory. There is a fee of $20.00 to help cover the cost of food and materials.

This promises to be a very rewarding day -- please join us!

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA PARISH

Marblehead, Massachusetts

October 8, 2023

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioner of Our Lady Star of the Sea,

“Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.” The words of St. Paul from today’s Second Reading (see Philippians 4:6-9) are an invitation to each of us to renew a spirit of prayer and thanksgiving to God. It is a prayer for renewal also for our Church as the Synod, in process since 2021 with consultations around the world, enters its first of two formal sessions. Knowing the polarization in our own society and the dangerous violence throughout the world, it is so important that our Church community can rise above such divisiveness and find its voice for the sake of sane guidance in our world today. The challenge is great and we pray that the best may be realized through this session and throughout the year to come.

All of that goes to the final and most important part of the “building plan” initiated by Christ in the formation of his Church. Over these weeks we have read about the Lord’s actions. He founded his Church on the evidence of God the Father’s grace active in the mind and heart of St. Peter, his Rock. To build us up together, in peace, Jesus both exemplified and called his followers to a courageous and kindly mutual correction. He insists on a forgiving heart, no matter how many times offences may be repeated. He does so because, in God, true justice and mercy are building stones of relationship, that fit together perfectly, so that we must not cut corners on either, but fully realize the demands of both. Last week we saw that the stability of our building demands that any gaps that exist between good intention and real action be overcome, so that what we say and what we do are of one and the same goodness. Today’s parable of the vineyard puts the crowning piece in place, the most important of all. We are to learn to sincerely love and prefer the good of the other over ourselves and be willing to serve that good with all our heart. That is what holds the whole of life together in one piece. That is the way of Christ, the way of Church life and the way that brings us to heaven.

Let your heart sing anew of God’s love! The Prophet, too, had prayed: “Let me sing now of my friend, my friend’s song concerning his vineyard” (see Isaiah 5:1-7). So, too, are you and I called to let our heart sing out, celebrating the goodness of the Lord reflected in the good in our neighbor. Everything in our lives is to prefer that good over and above ourselves. When we see and celebrate that good, we rejoice. When we do not honor the goodness of God by preferring our neighbor’s good over our own self concerns, then the sad picture of death, destruction, theft and dispossession mentioned in the parable of the Vineyard (see Matthew 21:33-43) befall our human family. Our world today falls apart to the extent that we have not listened to the master-builder, Christ, and have tried to construct society on an endless calculations of wants, needs and desires. Such leads to ruin. You and I, by our dedication to Jesus and his way of building, are to bring new hope to the world and help it turn away from violence and build for lasting peace.

Here at Star of the Sea, we are seeking a Parish Office Secretary to assist with our life and work. Effective skills in welcoming parishioners and patiently seeking solutions to various needs are the heart of the service. Principal responsibilities will focus on communications, and include interacting with all the components of the parish community. Work will include also telephone, email, scheduling, Bulletin and website. Strong computer skills in MS Office and an ability for multi-tasking are essential for the work to be shared. Please call or email me, as noted above, if you can help or pass the word along to someone you may know

Plans are rolling along too, for the Christmas Fair to be held on December 2, 2023. Mark your calendar early! Final spots at the Fair will be awarded soon.

Yours in the Lord’s service,

Msgr. Timothy J. Moran

Comments from Deacon Joe

The first session of the Synod on Synodality is taking place in Rome this month. It has been described as intended to consider how we should “be Church” in the current world. After the Second Vatican Council Pope St. Paul VI established a Synod of Bishops to meet from time to time to discuss issues facing the Church and to present the Pope with thoughts and recommendations coming from a representative group of bishops from around the world. This was intended to broaden the input the Pope would receive beyond the Vatican bureaucracy. The current session is intended to reflect the thinking of the whole Church on how we can go forward taking into account the thoughts, concerns, and needs of the world-wide community. It is often pointed out, correctly, that the Church is not a democracy. It may also be fair to say that the Church should not be an absolute monarchy. The Pope has full jurisdiction as spelled out at Vatican I, but the insight of Popes Paul and Francis is that this authority should be exercised both prayerfully and advisedly.

Some people seem to fear that the Pope intends for the Synod to overturn the established doctrine of the Church in one area or another. It seems to me that such fears arise from a more generalized dislike of Pope Francis’ leadership and they implicitly deny Jesus’ promises that he would always be with the Church and that the Holy Spirit would lead us into all truth. So if you’re worried about what the Synod will do, I suggest you relax and realize that God will not let the Church fall into error. I also think we all should pray that the participants listen to the promptings of the Holy Spirit, so that all their conclusions will be helpful for the Church as we work to proclaim the gospel to the whole world. <https://www.americamagazine.org/faith/2023/10/04/pope-francis-homily-opening-mass-synod-246198>

Catholic Update for October is available. It is titled “Beyond My Parish: The Universal Reach of the Catholic Church.” It may sound as if this is about the worldwide extent of the Church, but that isn’t it. It’s about “the extent to which the Church has entered into deep reflection and dialogue with almost every area of human interest and endeavor.”

Pope St. John XXIII, who called the Second Vatican Council.

This week there are no solemnities, feasts, or obligatory memorials. There are several optional memorials, including, among others, St. John Leonardi, who founded the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, and
