Special Message from Archbishop Henning

Archbishop Henning, Bishop McManus, Bishop da Cunha, and Bishop Byrne have sent a Message to the Clergy, Religious, and Lay Faithful of Massachusetts regarding the "Prioritizing Patient Access to Care Act," a new Massachusetts law which permits abortion throughout pregnancy for any reason. They invite each of us to take concrete actions during Respect Life Month to renew our reverence for life and to witness to the beauty and sanctity of this foundational gift of the Lord. Thanks to the many who have informed themselves and those who took action to seek reconsideration of the Act.

Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish

Marblehead, Massachusetts

October 25, 2026
Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioner of Our Lady Star of the Sea,

"You shall love the Lord your God with your whole heart... you shall love your neighbor as yourself." These words from Matthew's Gospel (see Mt 22:34-40) form not only the heart of our prayers this weekend, but the foundation of our spiritual lives. Jesus says that the whole law and the prophets depend on this love. We can say that everything depends on this love.

Jesus responds to a test leveled at him by a scholar of the Law by responding in a way expected of every pious Jew (Love your God with your whole heart.... the greatest) and, at the same time, he changes the context by adding to the greatest a "second" command (love your neighbor as yourself). And he then says that this second is "like" the greatest. Jesus is not saying that the two commands are grammatical or even notionally alike. The similarity he points to is intrinsic. To obey the one you must also obey the other. To love God with all your heart, all your soul, all you mind is, at the same time, to love each and every one God loves and to do so to the measure of God's loving. And, to love your neighbor as you yourself have been loved by God is, at the same time, to love, honor and obey the works and wonders of God in his love.

What is excluded in Jesus' teaching, is any claim to love God but to fail to effectively love one's neighbor, and any claim to truly love one's human neighbor and at the same time to effectively fail to acknowledge and honor God. One who claims to love God religiously but does not attend to the reality of relationship with those whom God loves, loves pretentiously. He does not know God with any depth. One who claims to love neighbor and serve humanity without knowing God loves shallowly, mistaking a passing effort of his own making for the inestimable depths of love and life that only God can and does give. In Jesus love of God and love of neighbor is one and the same love, love in its full. All real love depends on this love.

On the first two days of November each year, we celebrate All Saints' Day (November 1, next Sunday) and All Souls' Day (November 2, the following Monday). With the Solemnity of All Saints we rejoice in the victory of all those, known and unknown, who have lived lives of holiness. We recall the goodness they have brought the world and the happiness towards which we, in the world, are called in God's love. Our society today has such need of looking higher, more nobly towards that wonder of love God calls us to live each day. On All Souls' Day, we remember all those who have died, especially our loved ones and those through whom we have received gifts of life and of faith. We join our prayer to that of Christ, in and through whom alone are our lives brought to the perfection of grace in God's own love.

Confirmation for our High School ninth grade students took place last Sunday. Please keep the Confirmati very much in your prayers in these weeks and months ahead. I am deeply grateful to all who have had a role in accompanying these newly confirmed. In particular, I value the role our older High School students have taken in their preparation. Remaining to be worked out fully is how to continue to invite the newly confirmed to a continued life of prayer, learning and outreach.

Asking God's abundant blessings upon you and your loved ones, I am

Yours in the Lord's service,

Msgr. Timothy J. Moran

Youth Ministry

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to each of you for your active participation and support during the Confirmation Mass last Sunday, October 18, 2026, celebrated by Bishop Richard Henning.

It was truly a grace-filled and joyful occasion to witness the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the newly confirmed candidates as they received the Sacrament of Confirmation. Your presence, enthusiasm, and willingness to serve helped make the celebration a memorable and faith-filled experience for our parish community.

Thank you for your commitment to the SOS Youth Group and for continuing to put your faith into action through your service and participation in the life of our parish. May the Holy Spirit continue to strengthen you in faith, guide your decisions, and inspire you to be courageous witnesses of Christ in your families, schools, and communities.

We look forward to seeing everyone at our next SOS Youth Group meeting on Sunday, October 25, 2026, from 5:00 to 7:00 PM. Your presence and contributions are important as we continue to grow together in faith, friendship, leadership, and service.
May Our Lady, Star of the Sea, continue to guide and protect us!

The Creation Care Corner: Trash

COMPOST, RECYCLE, TRASH?

Americans generate 25% more trash between Thanksgiving and New Year's than at any other time of year. That's an extra one million tons of waste sent to landfills each week.

Join the Creation Care team and Sustainable Marblehead for a co-hosted event on November 4, from 7-8 pm in the Parish Center. Learn what can be composted or recycled—and what belongs in the trash—such as wrapping paper, ribbons and bows, holiday greeting cards, plastic packaging, food waste, turkey bones, and more.

Speakers include Andrew Petty, Health Director for the Town of Marblehead, and Taylor DuBose, Collection of Hard to Recycle Material (CHaRM) Program Manager at Black Earth Compost.

We'll also share clever ways to reduce waste during the holiday season. We look forward to seeing you on the 4th.

In the meantime, we invite you to take this online QUIZ about food waste and its implications. Control click on picture or go to pirg.org/articles/take-our-quiz-how-much-do-you-know-about-food-waste/.

All Hallows Eve

Next Sunday we will celebrate All Saints Day, in older wording All Hallows Day. The day after that is All Souls Day. I'll probably have more to say about them in my next column. The point here is to realize that Hallowe'en is not a freestanding celebration: it is connected to All Saints. This means that trick-or-treaters should be made aware that they are celebrating the saints. Wearing a costume of a saint would be a great way to do that. But superheroes and other favorite characters can also serve as the sort of people who can become saints.

What about ghosts, goblins, and witches? When I was a kid, I was often a ghost. As Father Steele used to say, when we wear such costumes, we are making fun of them. We do it with the understanding the Jesus is more powerful than any evil spirits or people who try to use them for evil purposes. We are safe despite the powers arrayed against us. It's important for the little ghosts, goblins, and witches to understand that this isn't who they want to be or anyone to fear in real life.

The liturgical year was Pope Leo's topic on August 14. He said our participation in it is "an encounter with Christ himself" and pointed to Pope Pius XII's words that the liturgical year is "Christ Himself who is ever living in His Church." Sundays are our "weekly Easter" which through the cycle of readings and celebrations presents the whole scope of God's saving work for us, even looking forward to its culmination at the end of time. It keeps us in contact with the fullness of this saving action. This is why attendance at Sunday Mass is so important for all. We should strive to make it possible for those who have to work on Sunday to be able to attend Mass. "[The gathering of the faithful in joyful assembly] cannot be substituted by a solely virtual presence, nor can it be reduced to a merely passive gathering." https://www.vatican.va/content/leo-xiv/en/audiences/2026/documents/20260812-udienza-generale.html.

This week the Feast of the Apostles Simon and Jude (Thaddeus) is on October 28. These were common names at the time of Christ. There were two apostles named Simon. Jesus gave one of them the name Peter; the other is today's saint. There were two named Judas. One was the Iscariot who betrayed Jesus, and the other is today's saint. Simon is sometimes called the Zealot, a member of a movement which sought to overcome the Roman occupation by force, although there is no proof that Simon actually participated in violence against the Romans. In fact the word translated "zealot" could also mean "from Cana." Jude is also called Thaddeus in the gospels of Matthew and Mark. There is a tradition that both preached in Persia before their martyrdom, but nothing certain, and St. Jude has become known as the patron saint of hopeless cases https://www.franciscanmedia.org/saint-of-the-day/saints-simon-and-jude/. See also https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Simon_the_Zealot and https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Jude_the_Apostle.

Have a good week.
