Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish

We are one community moved by Faith, led by Hope and united in Charity, seeking, as a caring family, to walk in the footsteps of Jesus Christ by reaching out in welcome to all: the young, the old, the stranger, and the neighbor. We commit ourselves to helping and healing, to feeding the hungry, to visiting the sick, and to consoling the bereaved as Jesus commanded in the gospels.

Special Message from Archbishop Henning

Archbishop Henning, Bishop McManus, Bishop da Cunha, and Bishop Byrne have sent a Message to the Clergy, Religious, and Lay Faithful of Massachusetts regarding the "Prioritizing Patient Access to Care Act," a new Massachusetts law which permits abortion throughout pregnancy for any reason. Please use the QR code below to read this Message, which invites each of us to take concrete actions during Respect Life Month to renew our reverence for life and to witness to the beauty and sanctity of this foundational gift of the Lord.

We Share Electronic Giving for Parish support. See our Website at www.sosmarblehead.org.

Coffee and Donuts After 9 a.m. Mass

Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish

Marblehead, Massachusetts

October 4, 2026
Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioner of Our Lady Star of the Sea,

"Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus." The words of St. Paul from today's Second Reading (see Philippians 4:6-9) are an invitation to each of us to renew a spirit of prayer and thanksgiving to God. It is the final and most important part of the "building plan" initiated by Christ in the formation of his Church. Over these weeks we have read about the Lord's actions. He founded his Church on the evidence of God the Father's grace active in the mind and heart of St. Peter, his Rock. To build us up together, in peace, Jesus both exemplified and called his followers to a courageous and kindly mutual correction. He insists on a forgiving heart, no matter how many times offences may be repeated. He does so because, in God, true justice and mercy are building stones of relationship that fit together perfectly, so that we must not cut corners on either, but fully realize the demands of both. Last week we saw that the stability of our building demands that the gaps that can exist between good intention and real action be overcome, so that what we say and what we do are of one and the same goodness. Today's parable of the vineyard puts the crowning piece in place, the most important of all. We are to learn to sincerely love and prefer the good of the other over ourselves and be willing to serve that good with all our heart. That is what holds the whole of life together in one piece. That is the way of Christ, the way of Church life and the way that brings us to heaven.

We see in the news the reports of the State Attorney General concerning histories of abuse in the Dioceses of Fall River, Worcester and Springfield. We know of these horrors now for many years and we know, too, that such violence and damage to young hearts happen in so many corners of our society and our world, even our families. All that is said above about the Lord's building plans and the need to confront and correct whatever is of evil is pertinent to our day. We must never tire in our resolve to be there with and for those most in need, most vulnerable, in all circumstances and generously come to their aid. With the Lord's help, we resolve to change the situations of life so as to prevent to the greatest degree possible any hurt through a profound respect for all human life, beginning to end, and every moment in between.

Let your heart sing anew of God's love! The Prophet, too, had prayed: "Let me sing now of my friend, my friend's song concerning his vineyard" (see Isaiah 5:1-7). So, too, are you and I called to let our heart sing out, celebrating the goodness of the Lord reflected in the good in our neighbor. Everything in our lives is to prefer that good over and above ourselves. When we see and celebrate that good, we rejoice. When we do not honor the goodness of God by preferring our neighbor's good over our own self concerns, then the sad picture of death, destruction, theft and dispossession mentioned in the parable of the Vineyard (see Matthew 21:33-43) befall our human family. Our world today falls apart to the extent that we have not listened to the master-builder, Christ, and have tried to construct society on an endless calculations of wants, needs and desires. Such leads to ruin. You and I, by our dedication to Jesus and his way of building, are to bring new hope to the world and help it turn away from violence and build for lasting peace.

Confirmation Day is fast approaching. Our first Retreat opportunity is taking place today, October 4th. I invite the whole Parish to join in prayer for the Candidates. If you know someone preparing, send them a note of encouragement and support.

Asking blessings on you and the quality of our common life, I am

Yours in the Lord's service,

Msgr. Timothy J. Moran

Youth Ministry

Dear SOS Youth Group and Classmates,

A heartfelt thank you to everyone who came together last Sunday during our meeting to pray for our brother, Owen Coyne. Your support was a beautiful expression of friendship and community during this difficult time.

May God bless each and every one of you for your kindness and generosity. May our prayers be a source of encouragement to his family reminding them that they are not alone.

Also, a reminder that this Sunday, after the 11:00 AM Mass, we will be helping with the Confirmation Retreat. Please make every effort to be present and ready to serve. This retreat will take the place of our second Sunday SOS Youth Group meeting for the month of October.

Thank you once again for being such a wonderful group. May God continue to bless you, guide you, and make you instruments of His love and mercy.

With prayers and gratitude,
Fr. Stephen Okoli, SMMM

The Creation Care Corner: Living Water

Season of Creation 2026

The Season of Creation 2026 celebrated from September 1 to October 4, concludes today on the Feast of Saint Francis of Assisi. It is an ecumenical initiative observed by Christian communities worldwide to renew their relationship with God and all creation through prayer, reflection, and action for environmental stewardship and ecological justice.

The official theme for 2026 is "Living Water", inspired by Ezekiel 47:9, 12, which describes water flowing from God's sanctuary, bringing life to barren lands, reviving waters, and sustaining flourishing ecosystems. This vision emphasizes human responsibility, calling Christians to immerse themselves in God's life-giving water and actively participate in the renewal of creation.

The symbol for 2026 is Immersion in Living Water, representing both spiritual reflection and ecological awareness. It highlights rivers, lakes, oceans, and baptismal waters, encouraging contemplative practices rooted in nature and a commitment to environmental healing.

Our Creation Care Team celebrated Mass at the harbor last week and will share in the Blessing of Pets today.

Thank you so much for your gifts.

Comments from Deacon Joe

800 Years

St. Francis of Assisi died 800 years ago, on October 3, 1226. His embrace of poverty in imitation of Jesus touched great numbers of people in his own time and ever since.

On June 3 Pope Leo continued his series of talks on the Constitution on the Liturgy. It is through the Rite of the Mass and those of the other sacraments, with our full participation in mind and heart, that "the divine gift reaches us." The Rite lifts us out of our everyday lives with its structure, which includes signs and symbols. For example, the sign of water reminds us of creation, the flood, the crossing of the Red Sea, and the water flowing from Christ's side on the Cross, all of which in Baptism then speaks of Jesus' death and resurrection. Signs become symbols when they evoke "an entire system of meanings and values" as is the case with water. Pope Francis pointed out that through liturgical formation "man must become once again capable of symbols." Pope Leo concludes, "The experience of a living and devout liturgy, accompanied by appropriate mystagogical catechesis, is the best resource for reawakening in everyone that openness to the encounter with God which, in the logic of the Incarnation, can only take place by involving the whole person: spirit, soul and body." https://www.vatican.va/content/leo-xiv/en/audiences/2026/documents/20260603-udienza-generale.html.

Fr. O'Grady points out that continuing professional education in some form is a requirement for many professions. Clergy should also have it for liturgy as well as other subjects. In turn, the laity's awareness of the meaning and practice of the liturgy should not stagnate or fade away. I hope my columns serve in some way as "continuing education."

This week we celebrate the Memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary on October 7, the anniversary of the victory of Christian naval forces over the threatening Turkish fleet at the Battle of Lepanto in 1571. This showed Europeans that the Turks were not invincible on the Mediterranean which greatly reduced their fear of being conquered. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Battle_of_Lepanto. Pope Pius V had called for Catholics to pray the Rosary in advance of the battle and he attributed the success to Our Lady's intercession. He established a Feast of Our Lady of Victory, now a memorial known as Our Lady of the Rosary, in her honor, and October is now considered the Month of the Holy Rosary. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Our_Lady_of_the_Rosary.

You might enjoy reading G.K. Chesterton's poem "Lepanto." https://www.poetryfoundation.org/poems/47917/lepanto.

The optional memorial of St. Faustina Kowalska, who had the visions of the Divine Mercy is October 5.

Have a good week.
