Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish

Marblehead, Massachusetts

September 13, 2026
Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioner of Our Lady Star of the Sea,

In these weeks of late Summer and Early Fall we have been reading from the center sections of St. Mathew's Gospel. The presentation has been about how the Lord Jesus "builds" his Church. We heard Jesus say to Peter: "upon this rock I will build my church." The rock refers us to Peter, yes, but principally to the grace of the heavenly Father who revealed to Peter, and to us, the true identity of Jesus as Christ and Son of the living God. The work of building is not a matter of flesh and blood, strong as those particular gifts may or may not have been in Peter, but of the saving will of the heavenly Father.

We prayed, too, the following week as Peter remonstrated with Jesus about his approaching passion, death and resurrection. Jesus recalled Peter, and us, to "think" not as human beings do, but as God does. It will be by the glory of his cross that Jesus builds his Church. It will be by the mercy of Jesus forgiving humanity its sinfulness from the height of his cross. Jesus asks Peter and us to take up our cross and to build reconciliation together with him.

Last week the Gospel went on to ask all of us to address the contrasts and failings that inevitably appear in life and relationship with the aim of "winning over" our brother and sister. It is the work of reconciliation practiced one by one which forwards the construction project of Jesus' Church.

This week, the matter is pushed even further. The question is raised: "how often must I forgive?" Here, Jesus' answer is expansive. Even in the face of overwhelming debt, God has forgiven us. We now, in turn, moved by that same divine compassion, are to forgive the faults and failings of one another. "Forgive your brother from the heart" becomes the material, the mortar and the measure of the building up of God's Church.

Accompanying this theme of forgiveness as the ways and means of the construction of God's Church, we celebrate on Monday the Feast of the Exultation of the Holy Cross. It is by the realization of the Great Commandment, love of God and love of neighbor, that our salvation is won. Jesus, for us, achieves a perfect love of the Father, embracing his saving will. At the same moment, Jesus begs forgiveness of every moral soul and for each and every failure that belongs to our human family, a full embrace of us as neighbor in a way that brings new life. Such is the "Triumph" of Jesus' cross. The 14th also marks the 30th Anniversary of the ordination of Deacon John Whipple, our "Deacon Joe" to the ministries of Word and of Charity. We join in wishing Deacon Joe a Happy Anniversary and pray God's continued grace and strength in his ministries.

You will see elsewhere in the Bulletin that two of our parishioners, Gustavo Sanchez and Noemi Ramos are planning to attend the Beatification ceremony of Archbishop Fulton Sheen in St. Louis later this month. They are inviting you to leave your prayer intentions in a basket before the statue of St. Joseph so that they may pray with and for you as they attend the sacred ceremonies in Missouri. Please leave them off by Sunday, September 20th.

Asking God's blessing on you and yours, I am

Yours in the Lord's service,

Msgr. Timothy J. Moran

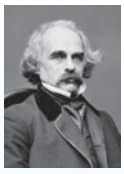
Welcome Ministry

Welcome to Our Church

Beginning this weekend Welcome Ministry volunteers will be at each of our Masses at the Atlantic Avenue entrance to greet those coming for Mass and to answer any questions you may have. Our purpose is to convey our appreciation to those who are joining us to worship and to celebrate the Eucharist. If you see someone who you think may be a visitor or new to the parish be sure to say hello. We would like people to recognize that we are a welcoming and vibrant parish. with a lot to share. If you wish to assist in this ministry, give a call to the Rectory.



Did you know…? Salem native Nathaniel Hawthorne (1804-64) never converted to the Faith, but he was attracted to what might be called the Catholic aesthetic. His late work The Marble Faun is often seen as indicative of his sympathetic attitude towards the Church, and his short story, "Dr. Heidegger's Experiment," conveys a timeless moral perspective entirely in harmony with Catholic teaching on original sin and concupiscence. What makes this connection even more intriguing is that his daughter Rose converted to Catholicism and became a religious sister.

Comments from Deacon Joe

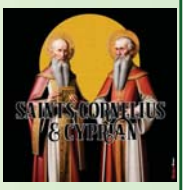
Remembering

On September 14,1996 I was ordained a deacon. For reasons at which I can only speculate, I was never reassigned from my home parish through all my years of ministry, and I have never wanted to be assigned anywhere else. Of course there have been a few difficult moments, but there have been far more that were satisfying or enjoyable. I am grateful for all the kind words and compliments people have expressed over the past thirty years; they allow me to believe that my ministry here has been worthwhile and helpful to parishioners and the parish. I look forward to continuing to do what I can for as long as I can. Thank you for you support.

I should have noticed that Rosh Hashanah began at sundown last Friday night. It's a two day celebration which ends at nightfall this evening. It marks the beginning of the year in the Jewish calendar, so it's a time of celebration. People wish each other "a good year" or "a good and sweet year." Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, follows just over a week later, beginning at sundown on September 20. The time between the two high holydays is known as the Days of Awe, a time for reflection on the past year and prayer for the future. Leviticus 23:23-25 We can pray that this will be a time of grace and spiritual growth for our Jewish brothers and sisters https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Rosh_Hashanah.

This week we celebrate Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross on September 14. The Cross was found by St. Helena in 326. A basilica was built by order of Emperor Constantine on the site of Jesus' crucifixion, and in 629 the portion of the Cross which had been taken from Jerusalem by the Persians was given back and displayed in Constantinople. The Diocese of Boston was originally under the patronage of the Holy Cross, and there is a relic of the Cross in our Cathedral. We venerate the Cross as the instrument Jesus used to accomplish his saving work https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Feast_of_the_Cross.

The next day, September 15 is the Memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows, formerly known as the Seven Sorrows of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Our Lord suffered on the Cross. Mary suffered at times in her life because of her association with Jesus. Seven sorrows in particular were identified in the Middle Ages, and devotion to them became widespread. In our church they are depicted in six stand alone windows in the transept, with the crucifixion at the top of the reredos behind the altar. The name Dolores is Spanish for "sorrows" and honors Mary's sorrows https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Our_Lady_of_Sorrows.



The Memorial of the martyrs Sts. Cornelius, Pope, and Cyprian, Bishop, follows on the 16th. Under persecution many Catholics performed pagan sacrifices to save their lives. Some clergy felt that they could not be readmitted into the Church but Cornelius as Pope and Cyprian as Bishop of Carthage took the position that after suitable penance, they could be readmitted. Persecution resumed and Cornelius was exiled and died in 253 https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Pope_Cornelius. Cyprian was martyred on September 14, 258 https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cyprian.

Have a good week.

Enjoy the summer while it lasts.
