Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"My friend, I am not cheating you. Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what is yours and go. What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous?' Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last." (Mt 20:13-16a)

Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish

Marblehead, Massachusetts

September 20, 2026
Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioner of Our Lady Star of the Sea,

"Conduct yourselves in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ" (see Philippians 1:27a). This greeting, Saint Paul's prayer and best wish, is meant for each of us. As we complete our Summer season and begin Autumn, we ask that God be with us and help us live each season worthy of the Gospel of his Son.

We are called by the Lord to be built up into his Kingdom. In Matthew's Gospel, we have finished reading Jesus' teaching about the quality of our community life. He has taught his disciples to take up their cross and to follow his example of building community through the forgiveness of sins. Jesus gave special attention to the questions of courage and kindness in the work of mutual correction and to the utter importance of asking God for the grace to forgive other's faults and failings from the heart. Today's parable focuses on the way God works with us to accomplish the full plan of his kingdom.

The Gospel (see Matthew 20:1-16a) invites us to focus on the harvest, the work of mutual correction and genuine forgiveness that is to be accomplished each and every day. We are asked to take satisfaction in the goodness of what is realized, and not so much in the amount, great or small, of our reward for the same. St. Paul tells us (see 2 Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a) that "for me life is Christ." God has already given us everything that he is and everything that he has in the saving love of his Son Jesus. He invites you to a share in Christ's work of bringing life and love to this world. All of life is ours in Christ Jesus. As God's thoughts are "above your thoughts" (see Isaiah 55:6-9) so should we seek to gain better perspective of what it is God invites us to accomplish in life.

The Parable of the Landowner and his workers reminds us how generous God is to us all. Usually we are struck with the generosity the Landowner bequeaths to the more recent workers, that he would give them a full day's wage. We can, and should, also think of the generosity of the Landowner to the full-day workers, notwithstanding their complaint. The Landowner was very generous to them. He gave them the agreed upon daily wage, and he sent them new workers, new help, new company the whole day through. Many hands make light work, or so the saying goes.

So is it with life. God's justice is effected for everyone, early and late comers. Over and above that justice, however, God continues to work with unequaled generosity to add grace upon grace over and above what is just "just." The gifts of eternal life are that kind of surplus spiritual wealth that pours forth from the heart of God morning, noon, and night. At all hours, he calls you to join him in his work of forgiveness by which he is bringing in the harvest, working his salvation. Think of the good that God invites you to achieve, to accomplish with him. With your eyes fixed on that good, you will see that your recompense is so great it is incomparable. Rejoice in that goodness!

We are now well underway with our new year of Religious Education. I am grateful to the many who have come forward to teach with us the ways of God to our younger generation. It is a great satisfaction to know that we are blessed not only with a good number of teachers, but also a core group of returning teachers who do not have children in the program, and of High School students who take on this ministry because of the good it can accomplish.

Asking God's blessing on you and yours, I am,

Yours in the Lord's service,

Msgr. Timothy J. Moran

Youth Ministry

Dear SOS Youth Members,

A heartfelt thank you to all our SOS Youth Group members, facilitators, and supporters who attended and participated in our meeting last Sunday. We are grateful for the wonderful fellowship and look forward to growing together in faith, friendship, leadership, and service.

We also invite all SOS Youth Group members and families to join us for the upcoming Creation Care Mass this Saturday at 4:00 PM at Hammond Park, Marblehead. This will be a beautiful opportunity for us to celebrate God's creation, pray together, and reflect on our responsibility to care for our common home.

SOS Youth Group: Faith • Fellowship • Service • Care for Creation

We look forward to seeing you there!

Blessings,
Fr. Stephen A Okoli, SMMM
SOS Youth Director

Join the Creation Care Team and the Franciscan Friars to celebrate Care for Creation and the Feast of St. Francis on Sunday, October 4 at 10 am at St. Anthony's Shrine, 100 Arch Street, Boston. Come celebrate, pray, and renew your commitment to care for our Common Home.

Our CARING MEALS MINISTRY serves meals to individuals and families experiencing challenges in life, such as bereavement, illness, new baby, or separation from family. We all know people who fall into such times; yet how often do we think to ask if having someone else provide a few meals for them would be helpful? Our volunteers enjoy cooking and wish to share their talents to bring joy and hope to others.

In this new Fall Season, lean into what you are hearing in conversation and offer our ministry to them. Contact the rectory at 781-631-0086 .

We welcome any parishioner who enjoys cooking and wishes to support our parish by participating in this ministry.

If you wish to sign up or request further information, please contact the rectory or Joan Thayer at joan_thayer@comcast.net or Nanci Pye at nancipye@verizon.net.

Did you know…? Henry Wadsworth Longfellow never converted to Catholicism. However, his works display explicit and implicit Catholic sympathies. This is very evident in his narrative poem, Evangeline, in which the devoutly Catholic heroine searches for her true love, the man to whom she had been betrothed until they were forcefully separated on the eve of their wedding. The separation was the result of the 1755 Acadian Expulsion -the British removal of French Catholic Acadians from Nova Scotia. They are portrayed as victims of religious and political persecution.

Comments from Deacon Joe

Thankful

I'm grateful not only for my thirty years as a deacon but now for all the congratulations and expresssions of support from the people of this parish. It is all very encouraging and much appreciated.

Fall The autumn equinox occurs at 8:04 p.m., on Tuesday, September 22. It is the beginning of fall, astronomically speaking, when the sun crosses the equator from the Northern to the Southern Hemisphere, as viewed from the earth. As days continue to shorten and nights lengthen the weather gets cooler with the approach of winter https://www.almanac.com/content/first-day-fall-autumnal-equinox.

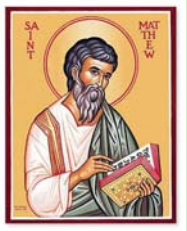
Pope Leo XIV devoted his teachings at Wednesday General Audiences for several months to Sacrosanctum Concilium, the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, from the Second Vatican Council. On May 20, he began the series with an introduction in which he noted several basic points:

The Council sought not only to reform the rites of the Mass but also "to lead the Church to contemplate and deepen that living bond which constitutes and unites her: the mystery of Christ."

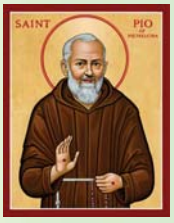
In the Mass, Christ the High Priest is present in the Word and in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood which transforms us into himself, a transformation which is not merely spiritual but also manifested in our daily lives. As Pope Francis said, "the world still does not know it, but everyone is invited to the supper of the wedding of the Lamb."

He concludes, "Dear friends, let us allow ourselves to be shaped inwardly by the rites, symbols, gestures and above all the living presence of Christ in the liturgy" https://www.vatican.va/content/leo-xiv/en/audiences/2026/documents/20260520-udienza-generale.html.

This week the Feast of St. Matthew the Apostle and Evangelist is Monday, September 21. He was a tax collector (called Levi in some gospels) who immediately left his post when called by Jesus. He gave a banquet for his friends and Jesus, which led Pharisees to object that Jesus ate with tax collectors and sinners, and Jesus replied that he had come to call sinners, in other words everybody. Tradition holds that he preached in Judea and Ethiopia. The tradition that he wrote the gospel which bears his name goes back to the early second century https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Matthew_the_Apostle



On September 23 we celebrate the Memorial of St. Pius of Pietrecina O.F.M. Cap. (Padre Pio in Italian). He lived from May 25, 1887, to September 23, 1968, joined the Franciscans in 1903, and was ordained a priest in 1910. He received the sacred stigmata (the wounds of Christ) in September 1918. He also received various spiritual gifts and was very insightful hearing confessions. He summed up his advice in the words, "Prega, spera e non preoccuparti (Pray, hope, and don't worry)." Monetary gifts enabled him to found a hospital on the hill above his monastery, one that has grown and continued in operation. His fame and popularity continued after his death, and Pope St. John Paul II canonized him in 2002 https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Padre_Pio.



Have a good week.
