OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA

Laetare Sunday, the Fourth Sunday of Lent

Dear Parishioner of Our Lady Star of the Sea,

Traditionally this Sunday has also been called “Laetare” or “Rejoice” Sunday after the first word in the Entrance Antiphon. We rejoice as we make our way towards the coming celebrations of the Lord’s passion, death and resurrection. We rejoice because we begin to see the wonders of God’s love at work in the hearts of those who believe! We do so also in the company of those the world over who are preparing to receive Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist on Easter. They are to be initiated into a participation in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, and so to come to walk in newness of life in him.

This mid-section of Lent is called the Lent of Catechumens. Theirs and our journey are marked out by three great passages of John’s Gospel. Last week we prayed the passage of Jesus and the Woman of Samaria. This week, it is the Man Born Blind. Next Week, the Gospel is the raising of Jesus’ friend, Lazarus, from the tomb. In each of these passages, the Lord Jesus reveals the principal realities of his identity. To the Woman of Samaria Jesus says of the Christ: “I am he, the one speaking to you.” To the Man Born Blind concerning the Son of Man, the light sent into the world, Jesus says: “You have seen him, the one speaking with you is he.” To Martha and Mary, Jesus proclaims: “I am the Resurrection and the Life”. These same passages describe the steps of our own spiritual journey: from hearing, to seeing, to drawing near in love. The conversations with the Woman of Samaria focused on the Word that is heard and that calls us to worship in Spirit and in Truth. The opening of the Man’s eyes asks us to see to it that the works of God be made visible and that we do the works of the one who sends us while it is day. The raising of Lazarus will ask us to believe in Jesus as the Resurrection and Life and to draw closer to him as friends, not servants, in his saving love.

In living and sharing the works and ways of God’s saving love together with Jesus and the Word of his Gospel, we come to “see” the true purpose of our lives and the destiny that is ours in him. In St. Paul’s words, we are to “Live as children of the light, for light produces every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth” (see Ephesians 5:8-14). We find in Christ the fulfillment of the Lord’s prophecy to David through Samuel (see 1Sam 16:1-13) “Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the LORD looks into the heart.”

As you and your Lord look into your heart at this midpoint of our Lenten Journey, what do you see? Can you name something of goodness that has been brought about in and through you? Can you see how such goodness enlivens and strengthens right relationships in your life? What does this reveal to you of the truth of God’s love and the quality of love you share with others? The above questions are a wonderful consideration for some time in beneficial prayer with the Lord. It is also good preparations for a worthy celebration of the Sacrament of Penance. Consider upping your joy this Laetare Sunday by knowing first hand these offers of God’s redeeming grace, tailored to you!

You might find a simple enactment of the above considerations in the opportunity of our Easter Clothing Drive currently underway at Church. Goodness served, we see, as well as new relationships of recognition and assistance created and the joyful truth of bonds of communion that raise up the fallen world for the better. Join in?

Asking God’s blessing on you and your loved ones for a Holy Lent, I am

Yours in the Lord’s service

Msgr. Timothy J. Moran

Thank You Note from the Marblehead Food Pantry

March 10, 2023

Dear Msgr. Moran,

On behalf of all of us at the Food Pantry, I want to extend our heartfelt gratitude to all of you at Star of the Sea for your great generosity in your donations to our Pantry during the month of February. It seemed to us that the level of donations was the highest it has been in several years.... I have to acknowledge that your parish's coordinator of the food drive, Teresa Chirlin, was unfortunately housebound with Covid, along with her husband, for part of the drive... However, Teresa's planning and coordination ahead of time kept things moving smoothly, as least from our perspective.

In addition to all the food items, paper goods and other necessities that were such a help to our Pantry, another source of great help during this food drive were the generous financial donations and gift cards from parishioners that were donated, totaling $1,360, which was truly appreciated.

We have seen a significant increase in the numbers of people we are seeing each week. A year ago our average number was 50-60 households and now it's 60-70 and sometimes beyond...

With gratitude for your support and that of your whole staff and parish throughout the year, and for the use of your facility, we wish all of you health and optimism in this season of spring renewal.

Sincerely,

Janet Parker

Food Pantry Director

Solemnities

Bookends Between the Fourth and Fifth Sundays of Lent, the weekdays are bookended by the Solemnities of St. Joseph, March 20 this year, and the Annunciation, March 25.

As you know, St. Joseph's Day is March 19, but since the Sundays of Lent take precedence even over solemnities, the celebration is transferred to Monday this year. It was only around 800 that devotion to St. Joseph began to spread in the Church. It grew through the Middle ages and thereafter, with Pope Pius IX declaring him Patron of the Universal Church and its Protector. At the top of the Jeremiah window in our Church St. Joseph is shown above St. Peter's basilica, with the title Universal Protector.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Saint_Joseph

St. Joseph is an example to us of the value of foster parenting (because he provided for Jesus) and of the dignity of manual labor. He is invoked for a happy death since he died in the presence of Jesus and Mary.

At the Annunciation, the angel Gabriel appeared to Mary to tell her that she was chosen to be the mother of the Messiah. Her consent led to the Incarnation, the conception of Jesus in Mary's womb by the power of the Holy Spirit. So this day points us to Christmas, nine months hence, and all the work of our salvation accomplished by Jesus during his life here on earth. This is clearly one of the most important events in the history of salvation, apart from the death and resurrection of Jesus. It is imaginatively depicted in the large window in the southwest transept of our church. We honor Mary for her loving acceptance of God's call in her life. <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Annunciation>

A pro-forma apology to the people who were at the 4:00 and 7:30 Masses last Sunday. I promised that the Catholic Update for March would be available then, but it wasn't in place until 9:00. I'm sorry for the delay. At least it's there now and is available while supplies last. Fortunately, it's not especially time-sensitive.

Another article from "America" points out that for centuries, the primary focus in our moral teaching seemed to be avoiding sin. The author said that focus began a few centuries ago, whereas in the first 1500 years of the Church, that wasn't primary. While obviously we are not supposed to sin, Christians looked first to doing what is right, acting lovingly toward others. www.americamagazine.org/faith/2022/12/15/keenan-ethics-catholic-sin-morality-244273

This week the two solemnities call us to a reasonable celebration. And, of course, even before that this is Lætare Sunday. "Lætare" means "be happy," and the reason to be especially happy is that we're halfway through Lent to Easter.

~Deacon Joe Whipple

Happy St. Joseph's Day! Happy Annunciation Day! Have a Blessed Lent.
